

Sunshine Rare Coins Email Newsletter #2 Post Baltimore & Central States Edition!

Welcome to my second email newsletter. Since my last newsletter in March, I have been busy buying and selling coins at the recent Baltimore and Central States show.

Baltimore Report

The Baltimore show is always one of my favorite shows, and this show definitely lived up to my expectations. I got in on Tuesday - a day earlier, to look at auction lots and to get first shot on a fresh deal. I was very busy buying and selling through the whole show. I bought a nice group of coins for inventory, and sales were strong. Stacks Bowers had a wonderful auction with numerous fresh collections including the last portion of the D Brent Pogue Collection.

On Friday night, I attended the Pogue V auction and stayed until midnight to see the very last lot sell. The Pogue collection is going to go down in the history books as one of the best collections ever, and I am fortunate to have attended all 5 auctions. A few of my clients were very fortunate to buy some once in a lifetime coins from this amazing collection.

CSNS report

Central States was another great show. Although the show is smaller than Baltimore, and there are less dealers that attended the show I still did very well. I managed to buy a few choice pieces for inventory. I also acquired a great collection of bust halves which you will hear more about later in this newsletter. Heritage always puts on a good auction, with a nice group of half dollars and half eagles, along with a phenomenal fresh 1866 Motto Proof $20. The coin was graded NGC PR-65 Cameo and was housed in an old Fatty holder, also earning the coveted Gold CAC sticker. It sold for $517,000 - which was a record price by a mile!

The highlight of my NEWPS from Baltimore and CSNS is the La Grange Collection of Bust Half Dollars. This group was put together by a long time collector with an eye for quality. The collection is mostly MS, with many coins that are conservatively graded. The collection is highlighted by a 1839 O Reeded Edge Half Dollar in PCGS AU-58.

I have also just added a large group of choice coins to the website, including some premium quality Bust and Seated coins across all price ranges. Please keep checking the website in the next few weeks because I add new coins frequently. If you are looking to sell quality Bust or Seated coins or have anything that you might want to consign to me - please contact me. Also, please let me know if you have any coins on your want list that I can help you find. I have a growing number of collectors who give me want lists so I can help you find that special coin.

The next shows I am planning to attend are the Summer Baltimore show at the end of June and the ANA World's Fair of Money in Denver in August. I also set up at the Parsippany NJ show almost every month. It's the first Sunday of the month and its always a fun one day local show with good public attendance.
